Police-cattle herders face-to-face in Himmatnagar

Himmatnagar, Cattle farmers in Himmatnagar have staged a fierce protest against Sabar Dairy over the issue of milk prices. Cattle farmers broke the police barricades and entered the Sabar Dairy and pelted stones, some of which exploded on the heads of people. A fierce clash took place between the cattle farmers and the police. The cattle farmers blocked the Ahmedabad-Udaipur National Highway. The situation became so bad that the police had to fire about 70 tear gas shells. The police have detained about 60 cattle farmers. The price hike paid by Sabbar Dairy every year in June-July was delayed this year, due to which the cattle farmers were upset. After they submitted an application to the District Collector, the price hike was credited to their account on the 11th. During the year, the dairy paid 7850 per kg of fat milk. With an average price of 7960 fixed annually, the cattle farmers got a price hike of 2110 per kg of fat, although the cattle farmers allege that this price hike is less than previous years. After a message went viral on social media to register this protest, a large number of cattle farmers gathered at Sabbar Dairy. Their main demand is to increase the price hike and get a fair price for milk. Since this morning, hundreds of cattle farmers from Sabarkantha and Aravalli districts had gathered near Sabar Dairy in Himmatnagar demanding an increase in milk prices. Their protest was initially peaceful, but the situation turned violent as the police tried to stop them. The cattle herders tried to break through the police barricades and move forward. When the police stopped them, the mob damaged the gate of the Sabar Dairy and the grill installed on the wall. After this, the atmosphere became more tense and the cattle herders started pelting stones. The windows of the police vehicles were also broken in this stone pelting. Some people's heads were also blown off. 3 policemen injured, 4 police vehicles damaged, situation under control now Sabarkantha District Police Chief Vijay Patel said that at 11 am today, as many members of Sabar Dairy had given a call to gather outside Sabar Dairy demanding a price hike. Their demand was that the price hikes that are made every year should be announced this year as well. On the other hand, Sabar Dairy had informed that since the audit is ongoing, the price hike will not be announced at present. In addition, an interim price hike was also announced. Despite this, around 1500 to 2000 cattle farmers gathered today. District Police Chief Vijay Patel said that the police had appealed to them to present themselves peacefully. The police also said that if 15 to 50 of the cattle breeders wanted to present themselves to the dairy chairman or MD, the police were ready to take them with them, but these people got agitated and started vandalizing police vehicles and due to which the police were also forced to use force. The crowd was dispersed by firing more than 50 teargas shells from the entire crowd.
